Contribution Area

My contribution focused on security rules, access notes, and how project records can be protected in a Firebase-backed app.

Project Context

SiteSpy is a construction support app that keeps project records, helps with wall measurements and material estimation, and prepares information for later review.

Challenge and Solution

The main challenge was communicating security work clearly. The solution was an editorial portfolio layout with concise report sections.

Learning Reflection

I learned how access rules and documentation help protect project information while supporting teamwork.
